

BEFORE WE SAY GOODBYE...
TALKING ABOUT DEATH SERIES - PART TWO
NORMANDALE LUTHERAN CHURCH
NOVEMBER 13, 2011

Session 5 “And Peace at the Last: Tending to the End of Life”
Dr. Steven Rousey

Discussion Questions:

Imagine a movie scene in which you were dying:

What would it look like?

Who would be there?

Where would it take place?

What do you fear about your own dying process?

Going Deeper

- Psalm 30:5 reminds us that, “weeping may linger for the night, but joy comes with the morning.” How does the temporal nature of suffering inform your thoughts/feelings about the end of life?

- Psalm 131 God promises to tend to our going outs and our coming ins from this time forth and forever more. How does this promise speak to your concerns about the last days of your life?
